PROBLEM-ORIENTED POLICING & SITUATIONAL CRIME PREVENTION

Drug dealing in apartment complexes, problems with foreclosed/abandoned properties, graffiti? Do any of these problems sound familiar?

This training will focus on the problem oriented policing (POP) approach, how it works, and the research on impacting crime. Mr. Scott will provide insight on this dynamic approach to fighting crime and problems! Learn to think outside the box!

Michael S. Scott is the director of the Center for Problem-Oriented Policing, Inc. and clinical associate professor at the University of Wisconsin-Madison Law School. Mr. Scott developed training programs in problem-oriented policing at the Police Executive Research Forum (PERF), and is a judge for the Herman Goldstein Award for Excellence in Problem-Oriented Policing. He was the 1996 recipient of PERF's Gary P. Hayes Award for innovation and leadership in policing.
